CSC RESEARCH GRANT
2020-2021

The Cordillera Studies Center (CSC) provides a CSC Research Grant to faculty members and research extension, and professional staff (REPS). Intended to support individual research projects, these awards constitute a significant effort to encourage research by providing additional funds for the faculty and REPS of the University of the Philippines Baguio.

Research projects may be undertaken on relevant topics that could promote the understanding of Cordillera society, on any of the following research thrusts:

- Environment and Natural Resources
- Ethnicity and Material Culture
- Governance and Public Policy
- Local Knowledge and World Views
- History and Social Institutions
- Art, Language, and Literature
- Health, Sexuality and Gender Issues
- Economic Development
- Media and Communication

Other relevant topics that could promote the understanding of Cordillera society

ELIGIBILITY/WHO MAY APPLY

Permanent/temporary faculty members and research extension and professional staff & extension personnel (including faculty members on sabbatical leave) may apply for the Research Grant;

Applicants must have fulfilled all obligations relating to previous Professorial Chairs, Faculty Grants, or other research incentives/privileges given by or through the University.

The grant may be awarded to an individual researcher or a research team. In the case of team research, the role of each member of the team should be clearly defined.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

- Relevance of proposed project to CSC Research Thrusts
- Potential of proposed project in enriching Cordillera Studies
- Strength of endorsement from head of office
